Thought for the Day

"A pound of pluck is worth a ton of luck." Thinks don't turn up in this world until someone turns them up. Arouse to the knowledge that you have a talent, and make it your business to find out what it is, that some one may assist you to get the good of it.—Garfield Leavitt.

Miss Marion Dewey was the hostess this afternoon of the young ladies' auction club at her home on Oklawaha avenue. Miss Dewey, assisted by her sister, Miss Hester Dewey, met her guests most informally and the five tables of players spent the afternoon enjoying the ever fascinating game of auction. Aside from being the regular club meeting, it was also given as a farewell party to Miss Hope Robinson, one of the club's most popular members, who will leave next Thursday for Boston to spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. Mills-Price and family. Those invited to enjoy the afternoon with Miss Dewey and Miss Robinson were Misses Adele Bittinger, Mary Burford, Fanny and Rosebud Robinson, Marguerite Porter, Janet Weathers, Clara Johnson, Kathleen Jackson, Mildred Gorman, Nellie Gottlieb, Dorothy Schreiber, Ruby Gissendanner, Ellen Clarkson, Alice Bullock, Mrs. E. E. Robinson, Mrs. W. V. Newsom, Mrs. Frederick Hocker, Mrs. Herbert Lattner and Mrs. J. D. Robertson. At the conclusion of the games a salad course was served and the afternoon with Miss Dewey was one of genuine delight.

Mrs. H. A. Kramer and Miss Duercks returned yesterday afternoon from a pleasant visit to Tarpon Springs, St. Petersburg and Tampa. Miss Duercks immediately went on home to Detroit. She is a charming young lady, and the friends she made during her visit to Ocala hope she will return.

The girls of Brenau have all agreed not to buy any more silk stockings until all danger to the country from the present situation is past, and lots and lots of others are following their lead. That is what I call heroic. You may talk about fighting for your country, but I think it takes a lot more courage to wear cotton stockings for her, and I am sure every woman in the world will agree with me.

Pythian Sisters, Attention

The Pythian Sisters will meet in the K. of P. hall this evening at 7:30. This will be their first meeting after the summer vacation, and a full attendance is desired.

Crook-Looney

The marriage of Mrs. Bertha Nelson Looney and Mr. Ernest James Crook of this city took place last night at the home of the bride in the presence of only the immediate family. Dr. W. H. Dodge of the Presbyterian church performed the ceremony. The marriage was very quiet and comes as a complete surprise to a large circle of friends, especially in Ocala, which city has been their home for many years, no one suspecting even an existing romance. The bride, always pretty and charming, was most attractive in her simple wedding gown of pure white. Mr. and Mrs. Crook left over the Seaboard for New York for a stay of two weeks, after which they will return to the bride's home on Wenona street to reside. Mrs. Crook is a member of one of South Carolina's most prominent and oldest families and has made her home in this city for a number of years, winning by her charming cordial nature many devoted friends. Mr. Crook came to Ocala in early youth with his parents from England and has always made this city his home, winning an enviable social and business position. He is a member of the well known firm of H. B. Masters & Co., of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Crook have our best wishes for a long life of happiness and prosperity.

Notice to Members of the Eastern Star

All members of Ocala Chapter No. 29, O. E. S., are urgently requested to attend the meeting Thursday evening, Oct. 8th. A number of candidates will receive degrees of the order and a large number of visitors from the surrounding chapters of Gainesville, Inverness, McIntosh, Ft. McCoy and Island Grove will be in attendance. Each and every member of the Ocala chapter will be expected to be present and help give the visitors a royal welcome. Refreshments will be served.

Good Work of Mrs. Porter's Club

The following refers to a class at Lady Lake of young ladies presided over by Mrs. Townley Porter, who is well known and much esteemed in Ocala:

"Mrs. E. T. Porter's famous needlecraft club at Lady Lake, under her direction, cleaned the school house, repotted the school plants that had been kept by one of the girls during vacation and started new plants.

During the two years that Mrs. Porter has given her services to them, these girls have become expert in all kinds of needlework; being not only able to make their own clothing, but the trimming of the same. They also plan and serve nice luncheons. And now they are planning for the school fair. All honor to the Tee Club!

Mrs. Porter was the guest of the county school board at the recent institute in Tavares.

Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Munroe will return tomorrow from their summer's vacation spent in the north.

Dr. D. R. Handley and family left for their new home at Raiford this morning. They are pleasant people, and Ocala is sorry to lose them. Dr. Handley's work, however, will necessitate his paying Ocala at least one visit a week.

Miss Mildred Gorman, teacher of domestic science at the Ocala high school, is making her home for the winter with Mrs. J. B. Horrell on Orange avenue.

Miss Mary Marshall has returned from her summer's outing with friends and relatives in Virginia, and is again at her post of duty at the Marion County Hospital.

Captain and Mrs. James Cribbett have returned from a vacation trip to the mountains of North Carolina. They report a pleasant trip and say they are glad to get back to the Sunshine City.—St. Petersburg Times.
